Notices To Land Owners Of Valuation Changes

Charles Carter Haled For Contempt Of Court

Leonard Gonder who stole the automobile from Clinton B. Vail of this city on Wednesday evening, will be turned over to the juvenile court as the young man is under 18 years of age. Gonder states that he will not be 18 years of age until next November. If this be true his case is one for the juvenile court to deal with.

Gonder stated to Sheriff Woolison that he took the automobile from in front of the Chautauqua and that he drove first to Gambier where he secured gasoline. He then drove to Utica but remained under cover all night. Gonder further stated that his home is in Akron and that he came to Mt. Vernon last Monday and that he intended to secure work in this city. Information comes from Utica, however, that Gonder had been working in a confectionery store in that village for several weeks. This appears to be true, for when he arrived in Utica with the stolen machine Thursday morning he proceeded to give a number of his Utica friends a ride.

Concerning Valuations—

District Assessor Severns states that notices are being sent out in Mt. Vernon and Knox county to property owners showing the changes in the valuations of property. Mr. Severns states that about 3,000 changes have been made in real estate valuations in Knox county. In some instances the valuation has been lowered and in some cases it has been raised. The district assessor states that if the property owners receive no notification they can take it for granted that the valuation of their real estate has not been changed this year.

Contempt Charge—

An affidavit charging contempt of court has been filed in common pleas by Margaret Carter against Charles E. Carter. In May the plaintiff was granted a divorce from the defendant and he was ordered to pay the sum of $2 per week alimony to the plaintiff, the first payment to commence May 1. It alleged that he has not paid any of the alimony, hence the contempt proceedings. The matter will be heard by Judge Jewell on Saturday.

Divorce Sought—

Married 17 years and with four children, Anna Holland seeks in common pleas court a divorce from Robert Holland.

The petition is filed by Smythe & Smythe and it is alleged that they were married August 5, 1897. The children are named and aged as follows: Charles M., 16; Zinitha, 15; Ruth, 10, and Sarah, 8 years. She charges extreme cruelty and gross neglect of duty. Several dates of the alleged cruelty are alleged.

She complains that he knocked her down and bruised and scratched her and one occasion threatened her with a revolver and threatened to kill her. On other occasions too it is alleged that he had threatened to kill. It moved her attorneys to ask the court to grant an order to restrain him from interfering with her or the children.

She asks for a divorce, alimony and the custody of the children—Newark American Tribune.

HOTEL BEAT

Arrested For His Practice In
Mt. Vernon

Chief of Police Parker went to Columbus Friday morning to bring back to Mt. Vernon Blain H. Clark, wanted here on a charge of defrauding an inn-keeper. Clark was in Mt. Vernon over a year ago and boarded at the Curtis Hotel for several weeks. He owed a board bill of $50 and gave a check to Landlord L. W. Drake, which proved to be worthless. Clark represented a land company in Florida and took a number of Mt. Vernon men to Florida, paying all their expenses. When he left Mt. Vernon he left behind the unpaid board bill. Chief Parker has been on the lookout for the man for several months. A day or so ago he received a tip that he was located in Columbus. The Columbus police department was notified and on Thursday night Chief Parker received a message that the man was under arrest awaiting instruction from the Mt. Vernon authorities.

BOARD BILL

Jumping Is Charge Against
Harold Hayes

Harold Hayes was arrested by Chief of Police Parker and Officer McElroy and placed in the county jail Thursday evening to await a hearing before Mayor Perrine. Several weeks ago Hayes was arrested on a warrant sworn out by William Hissong alleging that the former jumped a board bill, amounting to several dollars. Hayes was arraigned before the mayor at the time and was given a fine of $25 and costs and sentenced to the Dayton workhouse. The fine and workhouse sentence were suspended upon condition that he pay the unpaid board bill to Mr. Hissong. It appears that Hayes went back boarding the Hissong family, but instead of settling for the unpaid bill he ran up another bill of $9 for board. Hayes refuses to work and consequently he was taken into custody and will be compelled to answer to a charge of jumping a board bill.

colonel, because of the latter's published statement that the "rotteness of the state government is directly due to the dominance in politics of Mr. Murphy and his sub-bosses, aided and abetted when necessary by Mr. Barnes and the sub-bosses of Mr. Barnes."

Mr. Barnes lays emphasis on no particular sentence of the attack. The entire Roosevelt statement is embodied in the complaint, which says in effect that every normal reader knows that Mr. Roosevelt was charging the state chairman with part responsibility for political corruption.

Attorney Ivins served the papers on the colonel at his home in Oyster Bay. Mr. Roosevelt said: "Let Mr. Barnes go ahead. I have never said anything yet and could not make it good." The colonel did not seem the least worried.

Bring Suit For Libel.

Columbus, July 24.—David Tod, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, in reply to the declaration made by Auditor Sayre, that Tod had "played double" with the Franklin county "get together" Republicans, intimated that Sayre demanded of him the sum of $5,000 for running his campaign in Franklin county. Mr. Tod declares in his statement that the Sayres defection dates from his (Tod's) refusal to pay the alleged sum.

County Auditor Sayre threatened to sue Tod for libel. He said: "That is a bald-faced lie and Mr. Tod will have to answer to me in court. Tod and I never discussed the subject of Tod's paying money for his campaign in Franklin county and his story is a complete fabrication."
